

Enjoy the Captions from Uganda

“My mother often requests some dodo from my garden when she is preparing food for cooking” Nakityo Madrine – Sir Appolo Kagwa Senior Secondary School

What tree do you what to plant most? “ I like mango trees, because at my grandparents home we get mangoes from it” That’s how Nyango Mercy a 4 year old girl from Buiga Sunrise Pre School answered when asked during the fruit and juicy party; she is a Slow Food school project member.

“Dodo is our favorite green at home; my mother likes it so much!” Edith Mariam Nayiga of St. Balikudembe Senior Secondary School Kisoga

Now I can prepare and cook ‘Luwombo and Matooke’ better than my mother. I am sure with these lessons we can be the best cooks of the best food. Nakyazze Milly, cooking class learner St. Balikuddembe SS Kisoga

To me life means eating good food, drinking clean juice that is chemical-free, being fare to the soil and give it disciplined crops which are not aggressive and greedy. I learned this from our project movie seminar. Thanks to project DISC" Wanyu John St. Balikudembe SS

"I can now get to know why our grandparents should be honored for what they did for planting the fruits, we actually always have fun when planting and doing some gardening here at school, we take back home knowledge we learn from school. I will now be my fathers agriculture advisor." Kyeswa David Rasa Model Education Centre Kisoga.

